

BE THANKFUL

When you find it hard to get to sleep tonight; Just remember the homeless family who has no bed to lie in.

When you find yourself stuck in traffic; don't despair. There are people in this world for whom driving is an unheard of privilege.

When you have a bad day at work, think of the man who has been out of work for months.

When you despair over a relationship gone bad, think of the person who has never known what it's like to love and be loved in return.

When you grieve the passing of another weekend, think of the woman in dire straits, working twelve hours a day, seven days a week, for $15.00 to feed her family.

When your car breaks down, leaving you miles away from assistance, think of the paraplegic who would love the opportunity to take that walk.

When you notice a new gray hair in the mirror, think of the cancer patient in chemo who wishes she had hair to examine.

When you find yourself at a loss, and pondering what is life all about? What is my purpose? Be thankful! There are those who didn't live long enough to get the opportunity.

When you find yourself the victim of other people's bitterness, ignorance, smallness or insecurities, remember, things could be worse. You could be them.

“THAT YOU MAY KNOW”

There are three means of assurance of salvation. They may be called, external, internal, and evidential.

EXTERNAL is assurance by the Word of God,
INTERNAL is by the witness of the Spirit,
EVIDENTIAL is by the fruit in the life.

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

1 John 5:13

PREACHER, PREACH THE WORD!

Give them this LAMP to light the road;
This STOREHOUSE for their daily food;
Give them this CHART for life's rough sea;
This BALM to soothe their wounds;
Yes, preacher, PREACH THE WORD!

Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

2 Timothy 4:2

There's not a RIGHT WAY to do a WRONG THING.

A child of God should be serious
without being sour,
and happy
without being foolish.
