

The U in JesUs

Before U were thought of or time had begun,
God even stuck U in the name of His Son.

And each time U pray, you'll see it's true
You can't spell out JesUs and not include U.

You're a pretty big part of His wonderful name,
For U, He was born; that's why He came.

And His great love for U is the reason He died.
It even takes U to spell crUcified.

Isn't it thrilling and splendidly grand
He rose from the dead, with U in His plan?

The stones split away, the gold trUmpet blew, and this word resUrrection is spelled with a U.

When JesUs left earth at His upward ascension,
He felt there was one thing He just had to mention.

"Go into the world and tell them it's true
That I love them all - Just like I love U."

So many great people are spelled with a U,
Don't they have a right to know JesUs too?

It all depends now on what U will do,
He'd like them to know,
But it all starts with U.

So let Us all, start this New Year off with a BIG U.
I will, will U?

Get Her In

Dr. Charles Barty, a liberal minister who no longer believed the gospel, was preparing to retire one night when a poor woman came to his door. "My mother is dying," she said. "I want you to come and get her in."

The minister understood that the dying woman wanted to make her peace with God. He consented to go but he was worried, wondering how he could use his ideas of salvation to comfort her.

Sitting by her bed, he told the dying woman that there was no reason to fear God because she had lived a good life and had been a good mother. "God is love," he said. "Just throw yourself upon His mercy and everything will be all right." But his words brought no peace to the sin-sick soul.

The preacher knew what the woman was waiting to hear, and he remembered a hymn his mother had sung years ago. So he began to sing: "There is a fountain .. filled with blood drawn from Immanuel's veins, and sinners plunged beneath that flood lose all their guilty stains. A light came into the woman's face; and then the minister, as best he could, told her what he had been taught in his youth-that Jesus had been crucified in the sinner's place and that by receiving Him into her heart she could be saved.

In her last moments she trusted Jesus as her Saviour. He got her in. But more than that happened. When Dr. Barry related the story to his fashionable congregation, he concluded by saying, "And it got me in too!"

Dear unsaved friend, those last moments on earth will come to all of us. Then we will find no hope in our good lives, our good deeds, or our church membership. In only one way can we have peace with God and that is by trusting Christ as our Lord and Saviour. He said, "I am the way; the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by Me" John 14:6).

Jesus took your sins on Himself and died in your place. Don't wait another moment but receive Him now-so that you too "will get in."

A Prayer for Salvation: Dear Lord, I know I am a sinner and need your salvation to enter heaven. I repent of my sins and believe in my heart that Jesus paid the penalty of my sins when He died on the cross in my place. I now receive Him as my Saviour and Lord of my life. Amen.
